clandestine atmosphere of an exclusive speakeasy. Noble woods, velvets, amber-toned lights and live music wrap up this delicious English-style vintage cocktail bar with original distillates of the time.

Hall de El Palace Barcelona

Also from February 11 to 19, the hotel's majestic hall has a special formula for those who want to celebrate love in one of the most historic places in the hotel surrounded by the suggestive temporary exhibition by Gerard Palomeras, whose impressive paintings of the skyline of Barcelona seen from the hotel's Rooftop Garden have been decorating the walls of the space since January 31. The Valentine's menu in the hall, available both for lunch and dinner, consists of a welcome strawberry-infused Kir Royal cocktail, Chef's Amuse bouche, Prawn Ravioli with lobster bisque, Roasted Monkfish, Potato millefeuille, beurre blanc sauce and sweet lamb at low temperature, seasonal mushrooms, sour cream. For dessert Corazón El Palace by the pastry chef of the Miguel Costa hotel and chocolate truffles. The menu, which is priced at €65, includes a bottle of wine or cava for two, service of mineral water, coffee, tea or infusion. On Saturday, February 11, Tuesday, February 14, Friday, February 17, and Saturday, February 18, dinners will feature live music from 8:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

El Chalet El Palace

Celebrating Valentine's Day in the warm and intimate atmosphere of a cozy wooden cabin in the Alps, but in the heart of Barcelona: this is what the experience of El Chalet El Palace proposes, the most famous gastronomic pop-up in the city that, During its opening days from February 11 to 19 (Thursday noon to Sunday night), it adds Miquel Costa's Corazón dulce dessert to its regular menu. The gastronomic proposal, inspired by products and recipes from this delicious mountainous area, includes starters to choose between the Gratin onion soup with smoked yolk with thyme and the Trout salad with sour cream and polenta with dill, main dishes such as the tasty Fondues (traditional , brewed with beer or Champagne) and Raclettes or the Rib of beef confit, traditional rösti and roots and garnishes consisting of the Table of Swiss sausages, the Salad of lamb's lettuce, duck gizzards, walnuts and mustard vinaigrette or the Selection of pickles homemade. To finish, you can choose between Our Flan based on Crème renversé, caramelized almonds, whipped cream, Our choco & caramel and the traditional blueberry cake with whipped cream. The final touch will be Corazón El Palace, by pastry chef Miguel Costa. The menu includes water and coffee for 49 euros.

Afternoon Tea

On Valentine's Day, from February 11 to 19, the hotel's traditional Afternoon Tea will include romantic touches to its selection of sandwiches, artisan scones and Miguel Costa sweets, all served with coffee or tea for €38. For a supplement of €6, a glass of organic Mirgin Alta Alella cava can be added to the formula, while for an additional €22 the

About El Palace Barcelona

El Palace Barcelona opened its doors in 1919 as the first five-star hotel in Barcelona and is a member of The Leading Hotels of the World. Born as the Ritz of Barcelona, The Palace Barcelona combines timeless glamor with contemporary experiences and impeccable service, creating a truly elegant and memorable stay at one of the world's most storied hotels. Its 120 rooms and suites are designed in the hotel's characteristic neoclassical-inspired style, while each of the six exclusive Art Suites is inspired by a discipline (painting, dance, architecture, literature, sculpture and music) through a character who suppose a reference in it and that shows off a close relationship with the hotel. The 1500m2 Rooftop Garden with its swimming pool and panoramic views and the Bluesman Cocktail Bar, with its live music and renowned cocktails, as well as the gastronomic offer of the Amar Barcelona restaurant by the prestigious chef Rafa Zafra, make El Palace Barcelona the perfect destination for relax in style.
